

Katherine Coleman and Longwood come to grief over the Offset Oxer

Thrills & spills

Caught on camera — the moments where it all went wrong

Canada's Kathryn Robinson parts company with Let It Bee in an unlucky slip-up on the flat. The Olympic partnership had been clear up until the fall, and were placed 17th after dressage

Samuel Thomas II (above) misinterprets the corner at the Shogun Hollow under Oliver Townend, while Chance Remark (below) runs out at the Outlander Bank with first-timer Willa Newton

Pictures by hampsonfarm@gmail.com, Peter Nixon, Getty Images, Fiona Crawford and Helen Revington